

SOCIETY NOTES FROM NEIGHBORING TOWNS

PLAINVIEW.

Mrs. Adeline Irvin was hostess Friday evening for luncheonary in Mrs. Maude Johnson of Odessa.

Music and entertainment gave pleasure during the evening. Charming musical selections were contributed by Mrs. Cora Prichard, Misses Lucy Story, Mamie Dawson and Anna Trick and Misses Frank Truesell and Jake Burkett.

Punch and cake were served on the attractive purple silk, bows, palms and vines lent beauty. The reception rooms were ornamented with ferns and palms prettily arranged.

The list of guests included Misses Maude Johnson of Odessa, Ruth and Lucy Story, Mamie Dawson and Anna Trick, Mrs. Cora Prichard, Misses Lucy Story, Mamie Dawson and Anna Trick and Misses Frank Truesell and Jake Burkett.

The list of guests included Misses Maude Johnson of Odessa, Ruth and Lucy Story, Mamie Dawson and Anna Trick, Mrs. Cora Prichard, Misses Lucy Story, Mamie Dawson and Anna Trick and Misses Frank Truesell and Jake Burkett.

Music and cake were served on the attractive purple silk, bows, palms and vines lent beauty. The reception rooms were ornamented with fern and palms prettily arranged.

Misses Kirby Wall, Margaret DuPuy and Ethel Fitzell of Quanah returned home Tuesday after a visit with Miss Willie L. Clever.

Mr. and Mrs. Hattenbach and daughter left Tuesday night for Denison.

They will spend a month visiting their and at points in Oklahoma.

Mr. Art Miller and Miss Tot Bryant entertained with a forty-two party Tuesday night, in honor of

Miss Emma Grandy.

Editor J. C. Thomas of the Child-

less Post, accompanied by his wife,

was here Wednesday morning.

A. C. Fisher and family left

Tuesday in their car for Colorado.

Mr. J. P. Burns of El Paso was here

Tuesday.

The couple and family came in automobile from Woodward.

R. L. Sheldon and family returned

last week from a trip to Colorado.

J. J. Brooks, son of Mr. and

Mrs. Emily of Lubbock, was here

Monday.

Dr. William of Atoka, Oklahoma, is here with his mother, Mrs. Billie

Shipley, who is very ill.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Holland and

Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Prosser of El Paso

were here Tuesday.

Mr. C. H. Martin and little son returned Sunday from Roswell, New Mexico and Amarillo.

Mr. D. B. Thompson and son of Lubbock were in town Tuesday.

Miss May Brewster returned home

Sunday and extended her stay

with relatives at Liberal, Kansas.

Miss Ethel Morrissey remained

Monday from a round trip with her parents at Durango, Mexico.

Gerry Owens, Willie Bell Baldwin

and Ed Spill, were to Amarillo Sunday.

A nice program for Thanksgiving is set up in the schoolroom of our program. The children are invited to come and help us have a good time.

Misses Mary, Helen, and

Lorraine, and Edie, and I, in their car

to Enid, Oklahoma, Monday.

Miss Ruth McLean of Cheyenne returned home Tuesday after a short visit with Miss Willie L. Clever.

W. M. Phillips of Amarillo was here

Wednesday after business meeting.

Mr. Wylie Blair of Wichita Falls

arrived here Monday on his way to Colorado.

Miss Louise, W. S. Jones, from

Amarillo, was here from relatives

Sunday.

Frank Anderson and A. F. Burrton of Fort Worth, Texas, after four days.

Get the Best Protection

Act Fast and Call

HORLICK'S THE ORIGINAL MALTED MILK

Made from clean, rich milk with the extra of best melted grain, melted in our own Malt House under strict regulation.
Infants and children thrive on it. Agree with the weakest stomach of the young or the aged.
Doses are easily digested.

Should you eat at home when traveling, And you may be exposed to a momentary attack before returning, dashes of Hornick's Malted Milk will bring you back to yourself again.

Take a package home.

SPECIAL LUNCHEONS FOR LADIES

are served here every day.
The menu is changed each day and always contains some of the dishes for which we are famous. And being special luncheons, the prices are special also. If you have not tried them you surely have missed a treat.

DARNALL'S CAFE

We Never Close

Phone 254

Dancing School

Mrs. Sale of Austin will open a dancing school Monday evening at 8 o'clock at the McClellan Hall, 409 1/2 Polk Street, teaching all of the modern dances; also plain waltz. Private lessons given on appointment. Class for children will begin Tuesday morning at 9:30 o'clock.

FOR TERMS

PHONE 1126

ness matters.

Mr. D. T. Fielder and family left Tuesday for Electra, where Mr. Fielder will conduct a hotel business.

County Attorney Sam J. Hamilton and family left Wednesday for Dallas on a short visit to relatives and friends.

Misses Kirby Wall, Margaret DuPuy and Ethel Fitzell of Quanah returned home Tuesday after a visit with Miss Willie L. Clever.

Mr. and Mrs. Hattenbach and daughter left Tuesday night for Denison. They will spend a month visiting their and at points in Oklahoma.

Mr. Art Miller and Miss Tot Bry-

ant entertained with a forty-two

party Tuesday night, in honor of

Miss Emma Grandy.

Editor J. C. Thomas of the Child-

less Post, accompanied by his wife,

was here Wednesday morning.

The couple and family came in

automobile from Woodward.

R. L. Sheldon and family returned

last week from a trip to Colorado.

J. J. Brooks, son of Mr. and

Mrs. Emily of Lubbock, was here

Monday.

Dr. William of Atoka, Oklahoma, is

here with his mother, Mrs. Billie

Shipley, who is very ill.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Holland and

Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Prosser of El Paso

were here Tuesday.

Mr. C. H. Martin and little son

of Lubbock were in town Tuesday.

Miss May Brewster returned home

Sunday and extended her stay

with relatives at Liberal, Kansas.

Miss Ethel Morrissey remained

Monday from a round trip with her parents at Durango, Mexico.

Gerry Owens, Willie Bell Baldwin

and Ed Spill, were to Amarillo Sunday.

Miss Ruth McLean of Cheyenne re-

turned home Tuesday after a short visit with Miss Willie L. Clever.

W. M. Phillips of Amarillo was here

Wednesday after business meeting.

Misses Mary, Helen, and

Lorraine, and Edie, and I, in their car

to Enid, Oklahoma, Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hattenbach and daughter left Tuesday night for Denison.

They will spend a month visiting

their and at points in Oklahoma.

They will make their home at

Colcord, Oklahoma.

Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland Baker will have a round trip to Mexico

Wednesday in their car for an over land trip to Mexico to visit at the home of Rev. W. E. Fronzberger.

Mr. Head left on the morning train for his home, 1100 26th

Street, on Tuesday.

The couple and family will be away for two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Hattenbach and daughter left Tuesday night for Denison.

They will spend a month visiting

their and at points in Oklahoma.

They will make their home at

Colcord, Oklahoma.

Mr. and Mrs. Hattenbach and daughter left Tuesday night for

Denison.

They will spend a month visiting

their and at points in Oklahoma.

They will make their home at

Colcord, Oklahoma.

Mr. and Mrs. Hattenbach and daughter left Tuesday night for

Denison.

They will spend a month visiting

their and at points in Oklahoma.

They will make their home at

Colcord, Oklahoma.

Mr. and Mrs. Hattenbach and daughter left Tuesday night for